Acknowledgements and Abbreviations	vii	Part III: Woven Structure, Design, and the Jacquard Medium	125
Introduction	ix	7. Weave glossary, choosing and building weaves, evaluating weaves	127
Part I: The Designer's Skill Set	1	Weave glossary	127
1. Visual analysis: identifying contrasts	3	Choosing weaves	132
Type of contrast	3	Building weaves	134
Degree and quality of contrast	7	Structural evaluation	148
2. Sample analysis and documentation: structure and design	27	8. Which comes first: technique or design?	155
Observation and annotation of structural data	27	Loom and warp come first	155
Design analysis and documentation	36	Design before technique; technique before design	155
3. Weave drafting methods: recording, designing and reading weaves	39	To repeat, or not to repeat	156
Relationship between weave representation and the physical textile: warp and weft alignment	39	Trusting the eye	158
Illustrations	41	Choosing mistakes	158
Weave drafts	43	Threshold of visibility	159
Drafting simple weaves: drawdown and sectional draft	43	9. Case studies	163
Drafting compound weave structures	50	Primordial and Genesis	166
Other methods for recording simple and compound weaves	58	Two games, three squares, eight textiles	169
Part II: Technology, Process, Technique	61	Red July 336 : design process, an illustrated narrative	176
4. Weave-patterning technology in the digital era	63	Fast design, fast weaving	181
A brief history of figuring technology	63	Watercolor, woven canvas, finished painting	182
The digital loom comes down; the comber board goes out	65	Site and event specific textiles for the winter season	187
Industrial or manual Jacquard weaving: fast or slow	66	Weave-patterned shibori	190
5. Design process and terminology, from sketch to card	69	Textiles in space and time	194
Process	69	How many weave effects?	199
Terminology	72	Once and future figuring techniques	201
6. Figuring techniques	87	Slow weaving	210
One warp, one weft: self-patterning textiles	87	Notes	219
Weft patterning	98	Bibliography	221
Warp patterning	110	Contributors	223
Multiple cloths	118	Photography and illustrations	225
Lampas	120	Index	227
