

In this issue

Issue 205 Autumn 2020

46

Compass

13 Editorial

The role of the collector in the art world is brought into sharp focus

19 Dialogue and Calendar

Istanbul Carpet Week, the R.L. Shep Ethnic Textiles Book Award, The Cotsen Textile Traces Study Collection, an online exhibition of Asafo flags and Calendar

24 Diary

The editor's pick of exhibitions, auctions and events for the next quarter

26 Thread of time

Rachel Meek
Two Islamic textiles with talismanic properties: a Turkish prayer rug and a Nigerian robe

28 Travellers' tales

Anthony Hazledine
A personal celebration of the work of photographer Edward S. Curtis and his legendary images

32 Profile

Malin Lonnberg
Collectors Helmut and Heidi Neumann share the same taste and instinct for the world's finest textiles

40 Anatomy of an object

We look closer at a Caucasian silk jajim to shine a light on one of the most carefully crafted but often overlooked woven arts of the region

42 Common thread

A diverse group of pieces shows how honour can sometimes be overtly depicted and personified in textiles, conveyed through gifts and donations, as well as encoded in their function and design

Features

46 Sheikh Saoud

Sheikh Saoud Al Thani and Michael Franses
The late Sheikh Saoud Al Thani was responsible for assembling a remarkable collection that forms the basis of the permanent holdings of the Museum of Islamic Art in Doha. A new exhibition celebrates his life and the objects he collected

66 Doors of Zanzibar

Markus Voigt
Rugs and kilims from the Johannes and Christine Kinzl collection

74 Steppes into the past

Elena Tsareva
Weaving treasures and archival material from Turkmenistan held in the Kunstkamera Museum in St Petersburg throw light on the Khorasan Baluch

80 Proverbs on parade

Duncan Clarke
An informed overview of Ghana's Asafo flag tradition on the eve of a new online exhibition of African textiles

42

80

96

86
In search of the origins

In 2021, carpets from the Kirchheim collection will be sold by auction at Rippon Boswell, Wiesbaden. HALI considers the influence of the Kirchheims on the rug world

90
How the Dutch made chintz their own

Nathalie Cassée
Archival documents indicate that the Netherlands city of Amersfoort may be the true cradle of block-printing cotton in Europe

92
From the Pasha to Pennsylvania

Ted Mast
A large-medallion Ushak from the early 1500s has travelled between the Near East, Europe and America over the centuries

96
On reflection

Chris Hall
Chinese mirror cases of past centuries tell us much about their owners' hopes and fears

Reviews

104
Book reviews

Der Schatz der Marienkirche zu Danzig: Liturgische Gewänder und textile Objekte aus dem späten Mittelalter by Birgitt Borkopp-Restle, reviewed by Michael Buddeberg; Threads of Life: A History of the World Through the Eye of a Needle by Clare Hunter, reviewed by Jane Audas

115
Exhibition review

'Mythos Azilal' organised by Reinisch Rare Rugs at Schloss Kalsdorf, Austria

Marketplace

116
Marketplace report

The carpet designer and producer Jan Kath is recognised for innovation and originality, but his roots and his inspiration are in tradition

119
Fairs

Preview of Sartirana Textile Show at Promotrice delle Belle Arti, Turin

120
Auction Price Guide

Summer auction results from Sotheby's and Christie's in London, Rippon Boswell in Wiesbaden, Skinner in Marlborough, MA, Austria Auction Company in Vienna and some surprises from Normandy Auction in Rouen

136
Last page

The HALI calendar: Books and events planned and produced by HALI for the rest of 2020 and beyond

